Odom Tumbles in the Mud, but Wins With De Reszke-Ahumada a Clever Winner E. E. Smathers Buys the Crack Two-Year-Old Dick Bernard for $8,000

NEW ORLEANS, March 8 .- Although it rained continually during the afternoon, a large crowd was at the Fair Grounds. It was the second and last "Ladies' Day" of the winter meeting and the card was spolled the six favorites managed to make con-

Dick Bernard, considered to be the best colt here, was sold to E. E. Smathers to-day by Durnell & Herz for $8,000. Durnell & Herz, who had the largest stable here, will ship to Memphis on Tuesday.

The mile and 70 yards handicap produced a lot of ugly talk after it was decided. Three a lot of ugly talk after it was decided. Three books in the ring took all the money offered on imp. Albula, the favorite. Albula raced himself to pieces with Bud Embry in front. Consequently he had nothing to finish with. Major Tenny, the second choice, who was backed by the wise money, was the winner. There were only four starters in the first race. Bondage was the favorite. De Reszke was the good thing of the race. While the field was at the post George Odom, on De Reszke, got caught in the barrier and took a tumble in the mud. Although Odom was covered with mud it did not dampen his spirits, as he sent De Reszke to the front and was never headed, winning in a gallop by six lengths from Bondage.
Ahumada was an odds-on choice for the Ahumada was an odds-on choice for the second race, at a mile. He made all of his own pace and won cleverly from the pacemaker. Birch Broom.

Leflare was the best in the third, at a mile and a quarter. He went to the front after a mile had been travelled and won galloping by four lengths. Ceylon managed to outgame the favorite, Nettie Regent, in the run for the place, and secured it by a neck. Sam Hildreth landed his second purse of the afternoon in the fifth with Floyd K. The son of Pontico was the favorite. He was off last, but under a hard drive managed to get up in time to win by a nose on the post from the Corrigan cast-off, Frank Rice.

The closing event was a very open race. Three of the eight starters were held at 7 to 2. The winner, Denny Duffy, was among them.

GOSSIP OF THE RUNNERS. Definite Proposition for a Match Betwee

McChesney and Hermis. If George Spear, who trains E. E. Smathers's

If George Spear, who trains E. E. Smathers's trotting horses, speaks by the card, it would appear to be up to L. V. Bell to match Hermis against McChesney. Spear said yesterday:

"Mr. Smathers is ready to enter McChesney at the proper time in a sweepstakes against Hermis on any Eistern track, either in August at Saratoga or later on at Sheepshead Bay or Morris Park, and he will bet $20,000 on the side or as much more as the Hermis people side or as much more as the Hermis people As soon as Mr. Smathers verifies this state

As soon as Mr. Smathers verifies this statement it can be regarded in the nature of a challenge, but in all probability it will not be accepted until Mr. Bell is sure of the condition of his famous horse. Hermis has many valuable stake engagements to fill before the Saratoga meeting, and if he goes through them safe and sound and can be sent to the post fit to indulge in a hard race with McChangy a match will undoubtedly be McChesney a match will undoubtedly be made. But just a present turfmen say that Mr. Bell should not be in a hurry.

Turfmen thronged the "Broadway Paddock," or rather the Hoffman House, yesterday ofternoon. Among them was Edward Garrison, familiarly known as "Snapper," how, according to various rumors, is more or less associated with E. E. Smathers, the new owner of McChesney. Somebody started new owner of McChesney. Somebody started the story the other day that Garrison would train McChesney when the colt comes Fast, but when asked about the matter yesterday the "Snapper" declined to say a word. He did say, however, that he will train for the Holly Grove Stable this year, the owner of which he did not make known, and that among the horses in the string is The Rhymer, who is in the various handicaps with so light an impost that his chances seem rosy.

The story to the effect that a protest would be lodged against the entry of Advance Guard in the various handicaps because of alleged faulty registration of ownership created no end of talk among turfmen at the Paddock yesterday. The consensus of opinion was that it would be a hardsnip for Owner Shields if the stewards of the Jockey Club should decide to throw the "iron horse's" entry out. The excuse offered for the mistake in registration made by Shields is that he, like many other owners, was not conversant with the meaning of the new rule adopted last December by the Jockey Club and that, as a consequence, he should be treated with some degree of leniency. Advance Juard has been entered in stakes valued in gross at about $100,000 and to throw him out would be a severe blow to his owners.

Thomas W. Lawson of Boston will have a racing stable of flat racers this year as well as steeplechasers. His son, Arnold Lawson, is authority for the statement

A. J. Reed, former partner in the Fairview Stud with his father. Charles Reed, has just bought a membership button in the Metropolitan Turf Association, paying $4,250, the highest price on record. Hilly Dunn has also purchased a button for $4,000. The highest previous price paid for membership in the "Mets" was $3,500.

Jockey Otto Wonderly has signed a contract to ride for M. H. Tichenor & Co. this year for $12,000. He will take the place of Buchanan recently set down by the New Orleans stewards.

Jockey Arthur Redfern has arrived at Sheepshead Bay. the "Snapper" declined to say a word. He did say, however, that he will train for the

The annual meeting of the New York Road Drivers' Association was held last night at the Rossmore Hotel and for nearly four hours the session was a lively one. The question of issuing bonds to pay for the clubcussion referred to the incoming administra-tion. When it finally came to a vote on the ticket proposed by the nominating com-mittee the real strength of the so-called dis-mittee the real strength of the so-called disturbing element was shown. The by-laws provide that the president can appoint this nominating committee and that the nominations shall be sent by mail to every member of the association.

It developed at the meeting that a majority wished to place a new ticket in the field, but to do this it was necessary to amend the by-laws so that a nomination could be made with the time and notice provided in the by-laws. On the question of amendment a majority present voted in the affirmative, but the by-laws made a two-thirds vote necessary, and the majority was not large enough to cover this.

The diplomas for championships won last autumn in the Speedway matinées were awarded, that for trotters to Claus Bohling for Kingmond, 206, and that for trotting teams went to Patrick Hyan for Algonetta, 2:15%, and Lynn Holt. The pacing team diploma went to Isaze Ropper for Prince Tell and Hessie Reid. The ticket as nominated was then declared elected.

Otto Pullich, who won the intercollegiate championship on the horizontal bar for Columbia two years ago, has been declared Columbia two years ago, has been declared ineligible to represent the university in the annual intercollegiate championship contest at New York University on account of the four-year competition rule. It appears that Pullich took part in a dual meet with Yale four-years ago and the four-year rule as applied in the case of Edgar T. Glass at Yale will also be applied at Columbia. At the request of the University of Pennsylvania the contest with Columbia scheduled to be held at Philadelphia on Saturday will take place on Friday instead.

An important lightweight contest was arranged yesterday. It will be between Jimmy Brut of San Francisco, who lately knocked out Frank Erne, and Willie Fitzgerald of out Frank Erne, and While Fitzgerald of Brooklyn. The men will come together at San Francisco before the San Francisco A. C. for twenty rounds, on April 18, for 60 per cent of the gate receipts at 135 pounds. Britt is to engage in a match with Jack O'Keefe of Chicago in the meantime. They are to buy twenty rounds at catch weights at Portland, Ore., on March 9.

CANOEISTS SETTLE TROUBLES.

WINNERS OF TOURNAMENT TO MEET WEST AND SHAWANGE.

Gunwale Tilting and Racing a New Feature at the Sportsmen's Show's Contest
—Milicete Indians Build a Canoe and Will Enter the Tournaments.

The trouble with the canoeists at the Sportsmen's Show at the Madison Square Garden has been settled. Those who had already taken part in some of the bouts and had won did not want to lose their chances for the prizes, and so a compromise was brought about. The tournament will continue to the and a prizingly serves and Thom tinue to the end as originally arranged. Then the winner will meet Francis West, the man to whom there was so much objection. The winner of this bout will meet Shawance, the Ojibway Indian, who has never been beaten. West and Shawanoe will give exhibition one of the most interesting tilting contests One of the most interesting tilting contests seen so far was between four members of the Seixas family. This contest is not in the tournament, but is to settle a family dispute. Stanley and Claude Seixas met Albert and Harry Seixas. They are all very handy with the paddles and each crew won a bout. A third was necessary to decide which team should meet Philip M. and Marion Seixas to-night. Stanley and Claude seemed to have the advantage in the final bout until Stanley overreached and fell into the water. The Camp Rainbow boys caused lots of

Stanley overreached and fell into the water.

The Camp Rainbow boys caused lots of fun in their bout. The contestants were J. Fauth, Jr., and S. Lewis against J. J. Griffiths and Alfred Kalzaner. They thrust so fast with their spears that they soon got tired out and had to sit down to rest. Fauth and Lewis finally won. The Vreeland brothers won a good bout from G. H. King and F. P. Keiler.

Later on the Vreeland brothers appeared against J. B. Dunn and J. A. Robinson the spearmen agreeing to stand on the gunwales of their cances. George Vreeland succeeded in catching Dunn and sending him into the water.

of their canoes. George vreeland succeeded in catching Dunn and sending him into the water.

The Millitte Indians have finished the birch bark canoe they have been working on since the show opened and launched it last night. To-day they will enter the contests. This canoe is 18 feet long, 30 inches wide and weighs 40 pounds. It is made of one piece of bark, the girth of a great birch. Wooden pegs and tough cords of rattan bind the ribs together.

In the afternoon Tom Shawanoe and Francis West met in a single blade canoe race. West was better able to handle his canoe at the turns than the Indian, but Shawanoe paddled so fast in the straights that he won by two lengths. In a tail-end race Wabanoosa, the winner on Monday, was beaten by Andrew Landen of the Ontario camp. Another new feature in the contest line was a gunwale race. Shawanoe and William Harris rowed against two Indian canoeists, Wabanoosa and Buhwiijininii, and won by three lengths.

The Canadians seem to be winning everything in the contest line. In the portage race yesterday George Linklater and George Crawford of Ontario won in the fast time of 1 minute 10 seconds. The Adirondack men were second, beaten by nine seconds.

Prof. Ramon Reyes Sala, the Philippine lecturer, visited the show last night. Prof. Sala was born at Manila and has been lecturing on the new possessions in this country for three years. He was very much impressed with the bodily statue of the American Indians as compared with the Filipino.

Crescents Win From the New York A. C. in a Very Rough Game.

The Crescent A. C. won a hockey game from the New York A. C. last night that was of the rough house order. It was expected that the game would be a hot one and the St. Nicholas Skating Rink was crowded with team took the lead and at the end of the half the score was 2 to 1 in their favor. In the second half the New York players scored twice more and when the half was nearly over it looked as if the champions would be beaten as they were two goals behind. The Crescents then rushed things and managed to make the score four each when the time expired. It was necessary to play an extra period and the Crescents, then being in better expired. It was necessary to play an extra period and the Crescents, then being in better condition than their opponents, made the winning goal.

Soon after the game started Carruthers had his lip split and there was a long delay. He continued to play, and later on, as the wound still bled, he wanted to retire, but the Crescents would not allow this, and as a result there were many delays while efforts were made to stop the bleeding. Clark made the first two goals, each on a pass by Howard. The first was after four minutes: playand the second two minutes later. Then Liffiton was knocked out by a hard check by Carruthers and there was more delay. The last goal in this half was by Liffiton, who shot after Dobby's effort had been stopped by Smith.

In the second half Hornfeck was hit in the eye and hurt. Then Fenwick scored after carrying the puck up slone. Liffiton was the next man hurt. He was hit in the stomach and was almost knocked out. Shiebler scored the next goal and then Howard was put off the lose for tripping Wall. The fourth soal for the New Yorks was made by Clark on a pass from Fenwick.

The Crescents then got desperate. Shiebler was sent to the bench and later on Kennedy followed Liffiton and Dobby each managed to Score, making four goals for each side.

An extra period was ordered and the New York players were so thred that they could not stop the Crescent rushes. Wall, Shiebler and Laffiton carried the puck up and Laffiton shet the standing goal.
